WEDS FIRST LOVE IN AN AUTOMOBILE

Invitations Issued for Marriage to One, But Young Texas Girl Weds Another.

With invitations out for her marriage, in El Paso on Dec. 28 to a wealthy traveling salesman for the Brown Shoe Co. of St. Louis, Miss Evelyn DeMoss, of Colorado City, Tex., was married here late Monday afternoon to Benjamin Franklin Whitmore, a railway auditor with offices in Los Angeles, Cal. and Las Vegas, N. M. The marriage is another confirmation of "There's no love like the first," for Mr. Whitmore had become attached to Miss DeMoss years ago in Colorado City.

The bride, who has been visiting in El Paso with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Warren, of 1123 East Rio Grande, but recently finished her troupeau for the marriage with the St. Louis man. She had, however, failed to take into account Mr. Whitmore, who learning of the wedding invitations having been issued, arrived in El Paso Sunday night. Monday morning he called on his future wife and securing her consent for their marriage, arranged an automobile trip in the afternoon. First driving to the courthouse, they secured a marriage license and Mr. Whitmore, unwilling to brook further delay, secured the services of justice E. B. McClinton. Sitting in the automobile which was driven to the east entrance to the courthouse, they were married.

The whole affair was a secret, the bride's sister not knowing of the marriage until Monday night when Mr. Whitmore and his wife arranged to leave, announcing they were going to California on their honeymoon. They left Monday night for Los Angeles.

STRONG EVIDENCE AGAINST BALDWIN

Former Secretary of Navy Long Submits Evidence at Hearing.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 20.—In the suit today in which Mrs. Lillian Ashley Turnbull is endeavoring to break the will of "Lucky" Baldwin in favor of her daughter, whom she claims is the daughter of Baldwin by common law marriage, a telegram was read from former secretary of the navy John D. Long, stating that he had received a letter from Mrs. Turnbull many years ago giving details of a contract of marriage between her and Baldwin, but the letter had been destroyed. Mr. Long stated, however, that he remembered the contents of the letter very well.

Arthur E. Ernest of Guadalajara, Mex., arrived in El Paso this morning to visit his sister, Mrs. David McKnight.

THIS MAN MAY GO TO SENATE

An artistic sketch of J. Sergeant Cram, who is believed to be Tammany leader Charles F. Murphy's candidate for United States senator from New York to succeed Chauncey Depew. Ru-more have been current for several days that Murphy was measuring Mr. Cram for a senatorial toga, but as yet Mr. Cram has not been formally endorsed by either governor-elect Dix or the Tammany chief.
